THE PRINTER.

Who is it—"gentle reader," who,
Thy labours hard in pleasing you,
By telling all that's strange and new!

Who tells you of th' affairs of state,
Whilst legislators legislate,
And are engag'd in warm debate?

Who is it, that with stick and rule,
Chastises well the knave and fool,
And keeps in awe the party-tool?

By whom is it that learning's got,
And genius to perfection brought—
O! reader, say—say is it not?

Say, ye who always wish to know,
How the concerns of nations go—
Who do you for the knowledge owe?

Ye politicians too can tell,
Who makes you understand so well,
Th' affairs on which you like to dwell—

Then, in no case, should you delay,
(The' many do, from day to day)
With punctuality to pay,

Sir John Suckling used to say—I pity the Poet who is obliged to write for bread...

Under the denomination of nervous disorders, are included several diseases of the most dangerous kind, and are so various that a volume would hardly suffice to complete a description of them. It pervades, with its baleful influence, the whole nervous system, writhing the heart with inexpressible anguish, and exciting the most dreadful suggestions of horror and despair. To this demon have thousands fallen a sacrifice, in the direful transports of its rage. The most common symptoms of its commencement are, weakness, flatulence, palpitations, watchfulness, drowsiness after eating, timidity, flashes of heat and cold, numbness, cramp, giddiness, pains in the head, back and loins, hiccup, difficulty of respiration and digestion, anxiety, dry cough, &c. The Vegetable Nervous Cordial is also a great Antiscorbutic Medicine, and is of infinite service for purifying the blood, and curing those foul disorders of the skin which commonly ap-
