Poetry.

FROM THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER.

TO THE IRISH EMIGRANT.

Turn hither, thou wand'rer, forlorn and oppress'd,
Thou shalt find thine own home, in the land of the West—
Thou shalt find the warm welcome and heart-cheering smile,
That thou left in thy cot on the gen'rous Isle.

We've no titles, or ribbons, or stars, to bestow,
Nor a "Fountain of Honor" from which they can flow;
No legitimate Lords, born to rule o'er our nation;
But Man, as he is, the great Lord of Creation.

Yet we've Honor for those, who've Virtue to claim,
And genius is free to our Temple of Fame.
And so oft as our banners o'er Victory wave,
We've laurels to twine round the brows of the brave.

Then come, thou poor pilgrim, for here thou shalt find
No tyrants to break the proud march of the mind.
Thy temples and altars, in peace thou may'st rear,
For the pray'rs of the heart shall find ut'rance here.

Do'st thou linger to stretch a last look o'er the sea,
T'ward that Island, no longer a Country for thee!
And even while greeting our shores with a smile,
Do'st thou breathe a last pray'r for the Em'rald Isle!

Oh! my country! if such is the steady devotion
Which clings round the heart, at the distance of Ocean,
With what fervor of love shall we gather 'round Thee—
Since the Land of our Birth is the home of the FREE!

War Department.

SECTION OF BOUNTY LANDS.

Whereas, by documents exhibited at this Office in support of applications for land warrants, appears that many persons disregard or misconstrue the information heretofore published, relative to the proceedings requisite in all Cases where the Original Claimant does not personally apply at this Department; it is therefore deemed expedient to elucidate the several points alluded to above by the following observations:

1. In regard to the Power of Attorney directed to be executed in the cases above mentioned, it is deemed of primary importance, that it be formally acknowledged before a Magistrate, & that his acknowledgement be subscribed by the person who thus delegates his authority to another, as well as confirmed by oath or affirmation in presence of the said Magistrate, who then attests the execution of this formality.

2. Every Deposition or Affidavit ought to be subscribed by the Deponent, or Person making it, as well as confirmed by his oath or affirmation; and should then be attested in due form by the Magistrate before whom it is made, it is particularly required that these individuals who depose to the indentity of another, should subscribe their deposition to render the indentification valid.

3. A substitution of a Power of Attorney may be made authentic in very few words, and may be inscribed on the original Power, if a sufficient space for the purpose be there found: if executed on a separate paper, it is to be attached to the original instrument in the usual manner, and secured by the Notorial Seal. In applications for Land Warrants, the following simple form will be admitted, viz:

Know all men by these Presents, that I, A, B, Attorney of C D, by the annexed Power duly constituted and appointed, do, by virtue of the power of substitution with which I am thereby expressly invested, make, constitute and appoint E F of — &c. my lawful Substitute and Attorney, for the purposes therein mentioned; and do hereby authorise him to do and perform all acts and things necessary in and about the premises, as largely and amply as I might or could if I were personally present.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal at — this — day of — A. D. —.

(Signed) A B. [Seal]

I, G, H, Notary Public, &c.
do hereby declare and make known, that the above substitution was duly executed by the aforesaid A B, before me In Testimony whereof I have hereunto affixed my Official Seal and Signiture, at — this — day of —, A. D. 181—

N. B. As there are many sections of the U. States where a Notary Public does not commonly officiate—the aforesaid substitution shall be there legalized by the Official attestation of the Clerk of the County Court.

4. In the information heretofore published relative to ascertaining a "legitimate heir at Law" who may apply for Military Bounty Land in Right of a deceased soldier, the expression, "Certificates from competent authority," has been thought by some, not sufficiently explicit:—to remove, therefore, all doubt on this point in future, be it known that this insertion of the term "Competent authority" arose from representations of long standing at this office, confirmative of the fact that in different States, component parts of the American Union the legal mode of proving "Heirship" for the purpose of inheriting Real Estate, is different from that practised in other States: it is obvious, therefore, that the meaning and intention of the Secretary of War in sanctioning the term "competent authority," is, that the person so pretending to be a "legitimate Heir at Law," should be required first to exhibit his proof of it to that Tribunal, or Civil Officer, that is authorised by the Constitution and Laws of the State wherein he resides to take cognizance of the point in question, for local or other purposes. A daily authenticated certificate from that Tribunal, or Public Officer, has ever been, and will continue to be deemed at this Office conclusive Evidence in such a Case. Thus, an Official Certificate declarative of the fact that such a one is a "legitimate Heir at Law" of such a one, issued by a COURT of RECORD, AN ORDINARY, A JUDGE of PROBATE—according to the Laws and usages of different States, have ever been deemed equally admissible at this Office.

It should be observed, however, that in cases of Posthumous Claims to the Military Bounty Land authorised by an Act of Congress of the 10th of December, 1814, it is essential, that the Claimant would establish, not only that he is "legitimate Heir at Law," but also the particular degree of consanguinity he bore to the deceased Soldier in whose right he claims.

5. Although the rule will be adhered to, not to issue a Land Warrant to an Executor, nor to an Administrator, yet in all cases where "the legitimate Heirs at Law" are Minors, a Guardian constituted and appointed in conformity with the Laws of the State where the said Minors reside, may obtain a Land-Warrant in Trust for them, on his exhibiting at this Office Official Credentials proving his said quality.
