THE BUMPKIN'S INVITATION.
Air : Oh ! Nanny wilt thou gang with me ?
 Oh ! Molly wilt thou go with me,
 Nor sigh to quit this noisy place !
 Can rude log huts have charms for thee,
 And bumpkins rough with ruddy face ?
 No longer dressed in muslins white,
 Nor braided close tuine auburn hair,
 Say can't thou quit these scenes to-night,
 Where thou art fairest of the fair !

Oh ! Molly, when thou'rt far away,
 Wilt thou not cast a wish behind,
 If thou art forc'd to rake up hay,
 To top the corn or sheaves to bind ?
 Oh ! can that soft and gentle heart
 Such rural hardships learn to bear,
 If so—we'll from this town depart,
 Where thou art fairest of the fair.

Sweet Molly can't thou breeches make,
 And neatly spin Merino yarn ;
 Wilt thou soon learn pone bread to bake,
 And my old worsted stockings darn ?
 Should harvest whiskey make me fall,
 Would'st thou assume the nurse's care ;
 Nor sullen those gay scenes recall,
 Where thou wert fairest of the fair ?

And when dead drunk I'm put to bed,
 Wilt thou prepare the water gruel ;
 Nor curse the day that thou didst wed,
 And call thy drunken Strephon cruel ?
 If thus he daily wet his clay,
 Wilt thou not drop a briny tear ;
 And wish thou wert with heart more gay,
 Where thou wert fairest of the fair ?

WIFE ADVERTISED.
"Run away from Patrick Mac Dallough."—Whereas my wife Mrs. Bridget McDallough is again walked away with herself and left me with five small children and her poor blind mother, and left nobody else to take care of house and home, and I hear has taken up with Tim Guigan the lame fiddler, the same that was put in the stocks last Easter, for stealing Barney Dood's game cock. This is to give notice that I will not pay for hire or sup on her account to man or mortal, and that she had better never show the marks of her ten toes near my house again.
PATRICK McDALLOUGH.
 P. S. Tim had better keep out of my sight.

RELIGION OF THE MANDANS.
 "The whole religion of the Mandans consists in the belief of one great spirit presiding over their destinies.—This being must be in the nature of a good genius, since it is associated with the healing art, and the great spirit is synonymous with great medicine, a name also applied to every thing which they do not comprehend. Each individual selects for himself the particular object of his devotion, which is termed his medicine, and is either some invisible being, or more commonly some animal, which thenceforward becomes his protector or his intercessor with the great spirit ; to propitiate whom every attention is lavished, and every personal consideration is sacrificed. 'I was lately owner of seventeen horses,' said a Mandan to us one day, but I have offered them all to my medicine, and am now poor. He had in reality, taken all his wealth, his horses, into the plain, and turning them loose committed them to the care of his medicine and abandoned them forever. The horses less religious, took care of themselves, and the pious votary travelled home on foot. Their belief in a future state is connected with this tradition of their origin : the whole nation resided in one large village under ground near a subterraneous lake : a grape-vine extended its roots down to their habitation, and gave them a view of the light ; some of the most adventurous climbed up the vine, and were delighted with the sight of the earth, which they found covered with buffalo, and rich with every kind of fruits ; returning with the grapes they had gathered, their countrymen were so pleased with the taste of them that the whole nation resolved to leave their dull residence for the charms of the upper region ; men, women and children ascended by means of the vine ; but when about half the nation had reached the surface of the earth, a corpulent woman, who was clambering up the vine, broke it with her weight, and closed upon herself and the rest of the nation the light of the sun. Those who were left on earth made a village below where we saw the nine villages ; and when the Mandans die, they expect to return to the original seats of their forefathers ; the good reaching the ancient village by means of the lake, which the burden of the sins of the wicked will not enable them to cross."—Lewis and Clarke's Travels—Vol. 1st. page 138, 139.

Dr. Robertson's VEGETABLE NERVOUS CORDIAL,
 OR, NATURE'S GRAND RESTORATIVE
 (Price one dollar and fifty cents.)
 Is confidently recommended as the most efficacious medicine for the speedy relief and cure of all nervous complaints, attended with inward weakness, oppression of the spirits, head ache, tremor, faintness, hysteric fits, debility, seminal weakness, gleet, and various complaints resulting from secret impropriety of youth and dissipated habits, residence in warm climates, the immoderate use of tea, the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, so often destructive to the human frame, diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, Fluor Alba, barrenness, &c. &c.
 Under the denomination of nervous disorders, are included several diseases of the most dangerous kind, and are so various that a volume would hardly suffice to complete a description of them. It pervades, with its baleful influence, the whole nervous system, writhing the heart with inexpressible anguish, and exciting the most dreadful suggestions of horror and despair. To this demon have thousands fallen a sacrifice, in the direful transports of its rage.
 The most common symptoms of its commencement are, weakness, flatulence, palpitations, watchfulness, drowsiness after eating, timidity, flashes of heat and cold, numbness, cramp, giddiness, pains in the head, back and joints, hiccup, difficulty of respiration and digestion, anxiety, dry cough, &c.
 The Vegetable Nervous Cordial is also a great Antiscorbutic Medicine, and is of infinite service for purifying the blood, and curing those foul disorders of the skin which commonly appear in the form of Scurvy, Surfeit, Red Blotches, Carbuncles, Ulcers, &c. A dose of the Anti-Bilious Pills, taken occasionally with this medicine, proves of additional service in the most mentioned case.

Dr. Robertson's CELEBRATED GOUT AND RHEUMATIC DROPS,
 Price two dollars.
 A safe and effectual cure for the gout, rheumatism, lumbago, stone and gravel, swelling and weakness of the joints, sprains, bruises, & all kinds of green wounds—the cramp, pains in the head, face and body, stiffness in the neck, chilblains, frozen limbs, &c.

Dr. Robertson's PATENT STOMACHIC BITTERS,
 Price one dollar.
 Which are celebrated for strengthening weak stomachs, increasing the appetite, and a certain preventative and cure for the fever & ague, &c. &c.
 For the Fever and Ague, a malady so prevalent throughout the southern states, and so afflicting to families residing in all low countries, redundant with marshes, lakes, stagnated pools, rivers, &c. these celebrated and universally esteemed Bitters have surpassed every remedy ever administered, for the relief and cure of that most obstinate oppressor of the human frame, numberless instances of their efficacy have been testified, after the barks and various other extolled prescriptions failed, they proved successful to the admiration of those who experienced and witnessed their happy effects.

Dr. Robertson's INFALLIBLE WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES,
 A medicine highly necessary to be kept in all families—price 50 cents.
SYMPTOMS—The common symptoms of the Worms are, paleness of the countenance, at other times flushing of the face, itching of the nose and about the seat ; striding and grinding of the teeth in sleep, swelling of the upper lip, the appetite sometimes bad, at other times voracious—looseness, disagreeable breath, a hard swelled belly, great thirst, the urine frothy and sometimes of a whitish color, griping, or choleric pains, an involuntary discharge of saliva, especially when asleep ; frequent pains in the side, with a dry cough, and unequal palpitations of the heart, swoonings, sweats, palsy, epileptic fits, &c. &c.

 Though numberless medicines are extolled for expelling and killing worms, none equal in efficacy to Dr. Robertson's WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES, they are used in their operation, and may be given to the youngest infant with safety.

Dr. Dyott's Anti-Bilious PILLS,
 For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers. Price 25 cents—large bottles 50 cents.
 These Pills, if timely administered, will move the causes which commonly produce the yellow fever, bilious fevers, ague, ver, choleric, pains, flatulencies, indigestion, costiveness, hypochondriac and hysteric complaints, strangury, gravel, rheumatism and gout.
 They are peculiarly serviceable in Febrile Disorders, and especially in the removal of those obstructions which are the great source of their complaints at certain periods, they possess this eminent advantage over most other purgatives, that while they operate gently they produce neither costiveness, debility, nor too great excitement, whenever there is a disposition to a disease, arising from an effluvia, a too copious use of ardent spirits, a vitiated state of the bile, they are sure to relieve.

Dr. Dyott's Patent Italic Ointment ;
